Why request Group Professional Overhead Expense Insurance through Appraisal Institute Insurance Trust?

Would you be able to cover your business expenses if you became disabled? If keeping your business operating while you're unable to work because of a disability is important to you, consider Appraisal Institute Insurance Trust Group Professional Overhead Expense Insurance to complement your personal disability coverage. Since personal disability may not be enough to cover the expenses for you and your family as well as your business, AI Insurance Trust Group Professional Overhead Expense Insurance can be a good way to help protect your personal savings from the devastating financial consequences a disability can bring.

With this coverage, you'll have access to the following benefits if you become disabled:

- Up to $10,000 per month for up to 24 months of a covered disability
- Up to 100% of your monthly office overhead expenses
- Your choice of monthly benefit from $500 to $10,000
- Waiting period of only 30 days
- Specially negotiated rates through the group purchasing power of the Appraisal Institute

What Might This Coverage Pay for?

This coverage provides coverage for the normal operating expenses of your business that are incurred while you are Totally Disabled. If you are incorporated, a partner, or a joint tenant, overhead expenses include only your share of them. For complete details on eligible expenses, contact the plan administrator.

These expenses include:

- Mortgage payments on business premises (principal and interest)
- Rent
- Employee salaries*
- Principal and interest on existing business loans
- Monthly average of taxes on premises
- Maintenance of existing business equipment
- Leasing costs for existing furniture and equipment
- Principal and interest for existing equipment
- Insurance premiums (pro-rated monthly)
- Utilities and service fees (electricity, heat, gas, telephone, water, laundry, and janitorial services)

These expenses are not included:

- Salaries, fees, drawing accounts, personal expenses, profits, or other remuneration to yourself or a partner
- Income taxes or any expense you would not be reasonably expected to incur while disabled
- Salaries of all persons hired after the disability began
- Charges for professional services of individuals in the same profession as the insured
- Items which do not require a cash payment (i.e. depreciation)
- Other normal and customary fixed expenses (see Certificate of Insurance for details)

If a non-appraiser employee of the corporation is also a stockholder, the salary to the employee for duties regularly performed is an eligible expense as long as the salary is commensurate with those duties.*

What Are the Product's Features?

WAIVER OF PREMIUM: If you become totally disabled before age 60 and remain so for six continuous months and you are receiving benefits for that disability, you will not have to pay further premiums to continue coverage while you stay so disabled until coverage would otherwise end.

IMPORTANT EXTENDED BENEFIT: If a period of total disability is terminated by your death while insured, New York Life will continue to provide benefits until the earlier of a) three months after your death; or b) the end of the maximum benefit period.

BENEFITS FOR RECURRING DISABILITY: Successive periods of disability that are due to the same or related causes and are not separated by return to FULL-TIME WORK* of three months or more will be considered one period of disability, as will unrelated disabilities that are not separated by a return to FULL-TIME WORK* of at least one day.

How Much Coverage Can I Apply for?

You can apply for monthly benefits from $500 to $10,000 (in $100 increments). However, the benefit amount you receive will not exceed the lesser of: 1) actual monthly eligible expenses incurred; 2) monthly average of eligible expenses for six months prior to disability; or 3) amount of monthly benefits in force on the date disability begins.

The amount requested together with any other overhead expense insurance that you have or for which you are applying cannot exceed 100% of the monthly average of eligible expenses that you incurred for the six months prior to requesting coverage.

What Else Should I Know?

DEFINITION OF TOTAL DISABILITY: During the waiting period and thereafter, you will be considered totally disabled if, as the result of a covered illness or injury, you are completely and continuously unable to perform the substantial and material duties of your regular occupation, and you are not engaged in any occupation for pay or profit.

ELIGIBILITY: If you are an Appraisal Institute (AI) Professional under age 65, residing in the U.S. (except VT), and at FULL-TIME WORK,* you may apply for this important coverage. You are not eligible to apply if you are: 1) a full-time student or; 2) on active military duty.

WHEN BENEFITS BEGIN: Benefits start on the 31st day of a covered disability. They are payable for up to a maximum benefit period of 24 months if you are continuously disabled during that period.

WHEN COVERAGE BECOMES EFFECTIVE: In order to become insured, you must provide satisfactory evidence of insurability and pay the required premium. Insurance will take effect on the first of the month following the date your coverage is approved by New York Life, provided the initial premium deposit for insurance is paid within 31 days of the approval date and any person to be insured is performing the normal activities of a person in good health of like age.

Note: Residents of NC: Any reference to performing normal activities is replaced by the requirement that the health status of any proposed insured person remain the same as stated on your application.

Any person who is not performing such normal activities as required will not become effective until the day he/she is performing such normal activities provided such date is within three months of the date insurance would have been effective and the person is still eligible for insurance.

WHEN COVERAGE ENDS: All coverage ceases on January 1 following your 75th birthday or on the premium due date coinciding with or following the date you retire or cease FULL-TIME WORK* for reasons other than disability. Coverage will terminate earlier if: 1) you fail to make proper payment of premiums when due; 2) you cease to be a member of the Appraisal Institute; 3) the group policy is terminated; 4) you begin active duty in the armed forces; 5) the group policy is modified to end coverage for the group of insureds to which you belong; or 6) you request to end such coverage.

New York Life has agreed not to exercise its right to terminate the group policy as long as the Appraisal Institute continues to endorse only the New York Life program.

FULL-TIME WORK: actively performing the regular duties of your normal occupation on the basis of at least 30 hours per week.*
